Gentlemen:

For many years the United States Department of Agriculture Library and the Division of Fruit and Vegetable Crops and Diseases, Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils, and Agricultural Engineering have co-operated in building and maintaining a collection of the catalogs and other trade lists issued by nurserymen and seedsmen. Every catalog or list received is recorded and becomes a permanent part of the Library. The collection now numbers approximately 80,000 items. As a student's and research worker's collection, it is invaluable in investigations concerning the history, nomenclature, characteristics and distribution of varieties. It is also in constant use in answering inquiries as to where plant material may be obtained and regarding varieties being introduced to the trade. The collection as a whole is available to the public for reference use, and the information in it is made readily accessible by means of indexes.

In order that this collection may be kept up to date and as complete as possible, we wish to obtain all trade catalogs and lists of fruits, vegetables, and ornamentals as issued. Will you kindly send us your catalog, price lists or other similar material of the current year? It will also be appreciated if you will place our address (Librarian, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.) on your permanent mailing list to receive your annual catalog and other publications as issued.

We enclose an addressed label for your use in sending your publications.

Very truly yours,

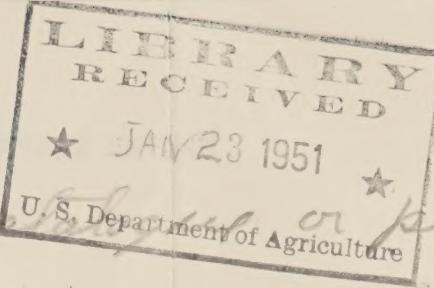

Ralph R. Shaw

Dear Sir:

We do not have a catalog or price list of our strawberry plants. Our special plant that we feature is called the Zeck-cellent, an outstanding everbearer. It bears a large very sweet berry, very much like the Wayzata and keeps extra long so is a wonderful berry for shipping, plants have a large number of runners and is very hardy.

Our last year prices were $8.50 per hundred and $2.50 for 25.

We also have some 'Kellog-Marvels'
'Premiers' and 'Wayzata's

Hope this will give you what you want.

Yours Truly
